YOUNG HOODLUMS INVADE TEENAGE PARTY

It looked like Junior Homecoming Week in Magistrate Keyes Court, in Drayton Valley Town Council Chambers on Tuesday, April 27th. Some were participants in the general brawl that erupted the previous Friday night cum Saturday morning, others were spectators in the court, on hand to see Justice in action.

According to reports a teenage party in the Saffronvale home, which started as an innocent and well-planned teenage party was invaded late in the evening by a group of older boys (older in years, even if not mentally older).

Before the fracas on the front lawn of the house was finally quelled over forty teenagers were miffed around, the Drayton Valley Municipal Police had been attacked and finally the RCMP had come on the scene.

Seven of the participants in the disgraceful incident were hauled off to Fort Saskatchewan to await trial in Drayton Valley on Tuesday. They were returned by RCMP guard for the court trial before Magistrate Keyes. Two were sent to Fort Saskatchewan for a period of three months, the rest were fined $10, and court, which was quite promptly paid. The two receiving the three months' jail sentence were Danny Hines and Stan, Tomlinson.

REPORT FROM LEGISLATURE

Mrs. Cornelia R. Wood, M.L.A.

Thursday April 28th, the beginning of the eighth week in the Legislature, was again Private Members Day and A.C. Finette (P.C. Spirit River) for the fourth year brought in a resolution urging the Federal Government of Canada and the United States of America to make an early start on complete paving of the Alaska Highway in Canada. The Highway was built during the second World War by the United States. It covers 1923 miles between Dawson City, B.C. and Fairbanks, Alaska. The 200 miles in Alaska have been paved but only 35 miles of the Canadian half has been hard surfaced.

Mr. Finette said that paving the Alaska Highway would increase Alaskan tourist industry. Cycles of dust are now the drawback on the Highway and preventing tourist travel there. He said, both B.C. and U.S. Governments have offered to help finance the paving project but the Federal Government refused to enter into endorsing the principle of a cost-sharing program.

The paving of the Alaska Highway would make a worthy centennial project and would be a boon to all parts of Canada, not just the north and would be important as a defence artery, were remade advanced by other members. On a voice vote the resolution carried unanimously.

Clause by clause study of legislation continued and a Bill was passed making it an offence to disclose a police officer who tells a motorist to speed up or move to the side of the road. It also makes it an offence to open a car door on the side next to moving traffic unless it is reasonably safe to do so.

An Act to set up the Alberta Investment Fund was approved to go into effect on July 1st. It provides a means of attracting savings into a fund to supply capital for investment in the industrial and commercial development of the Province. A corporation will administer the fund, issuing investment certificates of $100.00. Members of the Legislature will be allowed to purchase investment certificates from the corporation without the danger of disqualifying themselves from sitting in the Legislature.

A verbal battle again broke out when the Bill to amend the Northland School Division Act came before the Committee of the Whole Assembly. Mr. Macgregor, Liberal Leader, charged the Government with refusing to answer his questions regarding this school division and the dismissal of the former trustees, Dr. J.W. Chalmers.

Premier Manning who was in Ottawa on Thursday, had announced earlier in the Session that Dr. Chalmers had been let out because of business dealings for the Division.

Hon. A. J. Hooke, acting Premier charged the Liberal Leader with playing politics for publicity headlines when he said he had not received answers to his questions, but it was not so. He had been given answers to every question asked. "Maybe the honourable member did not receive the answers he wanted, but he received the answers," Mrs. Hooke said.

Friday afternoon the Premier was asked to give a statement regarding his visit before the Energy Board Hearing in Ottawa. He stated that Alberta and the southern Gas Company had applied to the National Energy Board of Canada for a license to export additional surplus gas to California market. The application is being fought by the British Columbia Government and by R.C. Interests, he said. The Premier went to Ottawa solely to deal with the B.C. intervention he said and he had no objection to producers in Northern B.C. intervention in Northern B.C. negotiating contracts to sell gas to the Pacific Northwest but he disagreed with the Premier Government siding the Energy Board to refuse agreements already made between Alberta's producers and buyers in Canada. The Energy Board had made no ruling as yet, he stated.

The most important Bill considered by the Committee of the Whole Assembly on Friday afternoon was the amendment to the Marketing of Agricultural Products Act which set up a Provincial Marketing Council to regulate and supervise the operation of Marketing Boards and Commissions and provides for advisory committees to work with Marketing Boards and permits marketing commissions which could make compulsory levies for advertising, promotion and research.

The difference between Board and Commission is that a vote must be taken among persons eligible before a Board can be established but the Provincial Council may set up a Commission without taking a vote. However, the Bill gives to the Council the power to conduct a vote as well on proposed marketing commissions. Marketing Council will review each proposed plan submitted to it and may hold public hearings or meetings thereon.

An amendment to the Public Highway Act permits the Minister of Highways to order destruction of a illegal sign. If the owner refuses to remove it when asked, Hon. Gordon Taylor stated that the Province if it is trying to keep sign uniform and he has received letters of praise from United States Highway Builders that one thing they liked in Alberta was the absence of advertising signs along the Highways which allows them to use the billboards.

Monday afternoon, the Legislature gave clause by clause study to 19 Bills one of which was the Wilderness Provincial Park Act. It contained the Park as the Wilmore Wilderness Provincial Park in the Wilmore area of the late lion, Norman A. Wilmore former Minister of Lands and Forests. The Game Act was also amended providing for regulations for the licensing and control of pheasant shooting areas in the Province.

At 4:30 p.m. His Honor Lieutenant-Governor J. Percy Page entered the Assembly and gave assent to 119 Bills, and declared the 2nd Session of the 13th Legislature pro-gram. Following this he gave a message of farewell since he expects the office of Lieutenant-Governor will be filled by someone else by the time another session rolls around. He thanked the Premier and Mr. Speaker and all the Members for their cordial assistance to the Government's business and for the courtesy to him. With a note addressed to his voice he bade each and all "Farewell and Good Luck".

This draws to a close the reports of this Session and I wish to thank the Editor for the courtesy extended to me and I trust all our readers have enjoyed the items from the Legislature.

Local golf course sign: "Please don't pick up lost balls until they stop rolling."

Too old to buy insurance?

Being over 55 is no barrier to the purchase of new life insurance. And for many people in their sixties or seventies it can be a very wise "buy".

Here's an example. A man age 73 has a substantial number of investments. At death, estate taxes will have to be paid. To raise the cash, income-producing assets have to be sold, often with severe losses to the beneficiaries. Life insurance can prevent this loss by providing the necessary cash.

Manufacturers Life has a sound reputation for its liberal approach to insuring older people for the purpose of estate conservation or for guaranteeing the continuity of a business. Our representatives are qualified to provide competent counsel to help our senior citizens meet these special needs.

who are instrumental in its administration. In this way a person or a group of persons will not be participating in some phase of recreation because they have been asked or have been railroaded to do so by the Recreation Director or some Recreation authority. They will be participating of their own free will and because they are enthusiastic about promoting a certain activity.

The most important thing for us all to remember is that the individual groups within the community are the essence of the public and tax supported recreation program. Without these groups public recreation has no purpose of existence whatsoever. These groups should be given a free hand to organize, no more and carry out activities of their choice with the assistance of and with the aid of a properly coordinated public recreation program. Then Recreation will be serving its true purpose, that of the enjoyable, satisfying and constructive use of leisure time.

On Wednesday the 21st April a visit by Diversified Investment Ltd., an exporting interest in building a Nursing Home here, examined various possible locations and again for the same reason, selected the heavy Park 22 on the south side of 40th Avenue between 40th and 42nd, Street, at second choice. A number of people will require solutions in either location before final regulations are possible.

Considerable time has been spent by the various representatives of the Drayton Valley District of Commerce to finalize the project of a Nursing Home for the Drayton Valley District.

Expressions of Public Opinion have been received both for and against the proposed location.

This is an excellent opportunity to see democracy in action, the people of Drayton Valley are asked if they have any opinions to express then now or forever hold them.

Expressions of opinion previously in writing can be made to President of the Chamber of Commerce or to the Mayor of the Town of Drayton Valley.

Early Start On Howse Pass Road Expected

Drayton Valley's future economic boom got another shot in the arm recently with the announcement that the B.C. Government is now starting to tend a very friendly ear to proposals for an early completion of the short cut Howse Pass route.

Much quiet behind-the-scenes work has been done with B.C.'s students, Klondike Days, Gardiner, and the Klondike is now ready to complete that the route would benefit B.C. as well as Alberta.

The federal government is a body committed to their share of the work in getting the highway through the scenic and short-cut route to the coast. Howse Pass and the Alberta Government has long since been committed to their portion of the task, and are carrying it out. In their David Thompson Highway project.

DISTRICT PERSONALITIES

WAYNE V. SCHMIDT was born in Lacombe, where his father was farming. The family moved to Edmonton while Wayne was quite young and his father went into business for the city. Young Wayne completed his schooling in Edmonton and then attended with a firm of chartered accountants. In 1961 he joined the firm of Oullman and Stuart.

Early this year his firm decided to set up a full-time office in Drayton Valley and Wayne was sent out to head up the Drayton Valley office.

Early on arrival here he was selected for two or three quite important positions relating to Chamber of Commerce activities. One was the teaching of one of the classes sponsored by the Chamber for Management Accounting, and the other was an even larger job. Heading up the Chamber committee that will put on the huge Klondike Kamps Carnival at the time of the Boat Races in July.

Mr. Schmidt married the former Miss Sophie Rudan, of Edmonton. Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt are living in Drayton Valley and are getting acquainted with older-settled residents. They both expect to be happy and quite busy in this aggressive and bustling town.

Uganda U. of A Students Visit D.V. Elementary School

A number of students from Uganda and Southern Rhodesia visited Drayton Valley Elementary School last week. The reason for the selection of Drayton Valley Elementary School was that it was one of the largest non-city elementary schools in the province. The students have just finished taking an eight-month "refresher" course at University of Alberta and are returning to their homes in Africa. The girls in the picture are all from Uganda, while the men are from Southern Rhodesia. Seen with the group is Principal and Mrs. John Gray, and a number of teachers from the local Elementary School. The visiting men teachers are Deputy Principals, and all experienced teachers. The group was accompanied by Miss Joan Robertson, of the University of Alberta. Miss Robertson has just completed her Ph.D. work and will be the U. of A. faculty next year. Also accompanying the group was Dr. Tom Wardlaw, of the U. of A. faculty.
